The Blueprint: Designing a Successful Remarriage Angela B. Chester

The Blueprint is a couple directed guide for those getting married for the second (plus) time or the mature first time couple. As a counselor, Dr. Chester, sees that too frequently, couples enter remarriage naive of potential problems and unprepared for the challenges step-family life will bring.

With The Blueprint, couples will learn not only about each other but also about themselves, their social skills, and their compatibility as a couple. There are millions of divorced couples in America; more than 75 percent of them will remarry.

When planning for another marriage, it's not just the coming together of two people trying to share their goals and dreams; they're healing from divorce and want to feel safe and secure before taking a major step again. This modern and easy-to-use premarital workbook will help individuals and couples prepare for that journey.
