Carnet D'Amerika 2004-2005 Erin Currier

Tuned to Latin America's rawest frequencies - that of marginalized people -, and echoing through Erin Currier's acute gaze, this travel diary is pregnant with the fascination of discovery. The period of Erin's journey could not have been more fortuitous: Argentina in 2004-2005 was at a historic turning point, when democracy was restored. Walking through the streets, Erin observes, questions, reads the newspapers, analyzes, and reflects in her diary, experiments that have allowed her to live the spirit that pulses in every corner, and which transmits the hope and joy of those who dare to keep dreaming. About the artist: Part portraiture, part collage from disinherited consumer "waste," part socio-political archives, but always humanists, Currier's work has been featured in numerous solo show. She lives and works in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Luke Palmieri:

As a student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart or real their hobby. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Carnet D'Amerika 2004-2005 can make you experience more interested to read.
