Bootleg Les flibustiers du disque: 278 (French Edition) Alain Gaschet

Ce livre vaut combien ? Un an (avec sursis) ! Il vous dévoile l'histoire des disques « pirates » largement racontée par ceux qui les ont créés. Il vous offre un voyage dans une discothèque interdite, sans cesse pourchassée par les chiens de garde des majors, sans cesse renaissant de ses cendres, avec ses labels loufoques, ses brouillons inaudibles mais aussi ses perles rares, ses œuvres d'art, ses ratages et ses heures de gloire ! « Une plongée dans la face B du business musical, celle des chutes de studio volées, des inédits tombés d'un camion et des concerts de légende captés à l'arrachée, des white labels californiens aux triple vinyles hollandais, des presses à CD d'Europe de l'Est aux Blu-ray nippons. » (Tsugi Mag) « Mais, derrière l'histoire du disque pirate qui inclut celle des bootleggers, des labels, logos et autres slogans, c'est aussi une autre histoire du rock'n'roll (sorte de dark side) que relate ici Alain Gaschet, celle de véritables fouineurs prêts à tout pour partager leur passion de la musique. Il montre également très bien comment cette industrie parallèle à celle des majors, très créative, ludique mais également lucrative, doit sans cesse se déplacer, disparaître pour mieux renaître ailleurs afin de déjouer tous les pièges et éviter la prison. Ce que montre aussi l'auteur c'est qu'en véritable phénix, le bootlegger, après la course effrénée aux vinyles, CD et DVD commencée à la fin des années 60 dans les foires et chez les disquaires, a aujourd'hui trouvé sa place dans tous les foyers ainsi que sur sur la Toile. » (blog ePagine) Cette édition augmentée « REMIX 2015 » a été enrichie d'anecdotes, de nombreuses photos, d'un chapitre supplémentaire (quel bootleg n'a pas de « bonus track ? ») et d'une documentation qui ravira sans doute les amateurs de raretés ! En achetant ce livre, vous devenez complices. Bienvenue au club. Et puis, après tout, qu'est-ce qu'un an ? Comme le disaient si bien nos amis de Swingin' Pig : If it ain't no dangerous, it ain't no rock'n'roll
