Lejos del bronce: Cuando Kirchner no era K (Spanish Edition) Julio Bárbaro, Oscar Muiño, Omar Pintos

Con testimonios inéditos de quienes lo acompañaron en su infancia, en sus primeros pasos en la militancia y en su actividad previa a la política, Lejos del bronce aborda los rasgos menos conocidos de la personalidad de Lupín, el Néstor Kirchner joven en el que se prefiguraba el futuro presidente. Testigos privilegiados de sus años patagónicos revelan por primera vez sus vínculos políticos y comerciales con la dictadura militar, su temprana convicción de llegar a la presidencia, su estrategia para doblegar adversarios y construir poder, el origen de la transversalidad, el trato afable con la gente y despiadado con sus colaboradores, sus maniobras destituyentes antes de ser gobernador. El relato impactante de quien estuvo a su lado en la financiera cuando Kirchner remataba las casas de familias humildes, y los complejos y las burlas que el ex presidente padeció en su niñez a raíz de sus defectos físicos se conjugan en este libro con la mirada aguda y reflexiva de Julio Bárbaro y Oscar Muiño acerca de las contradicciones de ese hombre al que algunos pretenden subir al bronce.
