Excerpt from The Nye Family of America Association: Proceedings at the First Reunion at Sandwich, Massachusetts August Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh, 1903

On the fifth, sixth, and seventh of August the Nye Family of America held their first home-coming in the historic and beautiful old town of Sandwich, Massachusetts.

Where could there have been a place more appropriate than this for the meeting of an organization, whose object is to keep alive the memory of those men of the olden time who were our ancestors, and to hand down to our children's children the record of their lives? Here in our ancestor, Benjamin Nye, toiled and struggled, amid many privations, so that in his descendants might enjoy the fruits of his labors, and here amid these scenes pay their tribute of affection to his memory. These men were not, as we judge men today, of brilliant intellect and of great ability, but men of fearless courage, and intentness of purpose, who held unwittingly in their hands the highest hopes of human destiny, which their descendants of today have seen rapidly fulfilled.

Who among us does not feel proud of such a birthright? This strong tie of kinship has caused his numerous progeny, from the Golden Gate in the West, to the Bay of Fundy in the East, to throw aside for awhile the cares of business and social life to meet their kinsfolk of old Cape Cod, with a fraternal greeting.
