What Is A Family?

Cher Erickson

What Is A Family? was written for the purpose of teaching children that there are many different types of families. The book speaks from the perspective of children as they describe their families in a contemporary, as well as sensitive manner. It is meant to be read with an adult to help facilitate a child's understanding of the issues presented in the book. With this understanding, the book strives to promote confidence and assurance to all children, that they can be proud of themselves and their family regardless of their particular family structure. At the conclusion, the main character achieves clarity and is able to answer the title question: What Is A Family?

Cher Erickson is an advocate for children and a multi-talented, retired teacher. She possesses a B. A. degree in education, with an English major and journalism minor. Mrs. Erickson added to her credentials by becoming a reading specialist and earning a National Board Certified ENL Certificate. She also has an M.B.A.
