Pictures At An Exhibition for Trombone and Piano Modeste Mussorgsky

¥ Pictures at an Exhibition was originally written as a suite in ten movements for Piano in 1874. ¥ It has become a showpiece for virtuoso Pianists and further known through a number of orchestrations and arrangements with Maurice Ravel's being the most performed by far. ¥ Ralph Sauer's landmark arrangement very successfully captures the spirit of the composition by carefully planning rests and managing the technical split between Trombonist and Pianist. ¥ This arrangement is about 30+ minutes in length and playable by advanced performers. ¥ It is a major new addition to the Trombone repertoire.
