Conversations with Catalogers in the 21st Century (Libraries Unlimited Library Management Collection)

Authored by cataloging librarians, educators, and information system experts, this book of essays addresses ideas and methods for tackling the modern challenges of cataloging and metadata practices.

- Contains essays authored by experienced, passionate, and articulate catalogers, metadata librarians, and other experts
- Includes original research survey results on librarians' views regarding current topics such as RDA, AACR2, FRBR, the use of upstream data, and cataloging on the Semantic Web
- Contains an introductory timeline and history of cataloging and metadata from ancient to present times
- Provides a chronological bibliography of selected works related to cataloging and libraries through 1800 and a more complete bibliography of related works
- Includes a foreword and afterword by three internationally known and respected cataloging figures, Michael Gorman, Dr. Sheila S. Intner, and Dr. Susan S. Lazinger
