The definitive guide for mentoring special education teachers

The national shortage and high attrition rate of special education teachers are impediments to serving students with special needs. This book helps meet an essential need for attracting, retaining, and supporting special educators. The authors provide a wealth of research-based tools for professional developers to use in multiple settings, including schools with culturally and linguistically diverse students. Topics covered include:

- RTI and positive behavior support
- Planning and conducting IEP meetings
- Assuming emerging responsibilities in today's inclusive schools
- Mentoring strategies specific to special educators' needs
- Differentiated instruction and classroom organization
