Aqueous Dreams Marcia E. Levitsky

As an undergraduate advisor, Mary was accustomed to helping students with their academic and personal problems. When she starts to have intense, bizarre, and sometimes terrifying dreams, she must face her own past, and a daunting truth. With humor and love, her friends and family keep her sane, while meditation and faith spawn the courage needed for her journey. As this is an erotic mystery, there are slippery twists and turns until the very last page. Sultry seductions, unexpected passions, shifting identities, and contemporary relationships thread throughout the story. What else is it about? Race, rage, rape, repression, revelation, redemption.
