Bless This Way Anne E. Kitch

Popular children's author Anne Kitch is back with a new book for preschool and early elementary aged children. Ten rhyming poems--each based on a Psalm--teach children to recognize the presence of God in all the things they do during a day. In the midst of building friendships and thanking God for all our gifts, even while walking, singing, resting, and working, God is always with us, guiding us. Bless This Way helps children explore that idea in concrete terms they can understand, using lively and energetic art that will delight adults and children alike.
