Calvin E. Stickelber

Dr. Stickelberger paints his portrait with a remarkable economy of words and with a fine sense of drama. He never uses two words when one will do. The result is an exceptionally vivid and fascinating study of both a man and an epoch, which holds the reader's attention from the first page to the last. This short, but authoritative study of Calvin's life and times was first published in German and has been translated in French, Hungarian and Dutch as well as English.
