Perfect for the avid angler, it's a year of gorgeous, breathtakingly realistic portraits of North American trout by acclaimed nature artist Joseph Tomelleri. His distinctive style is noted for the lifelike colors and exquisite detail he achieves, from the silvery Arctic grayling to a vividly hued Goose Lake redband trout to a beautiful spawning Dolly Varden. Accompanying each month's illustration is detailed information about the featured fish, including a natural history, color range map, and hatch charts of mayflies and caddis flies.
