ROMANZO BREVE (91 pagine) - ROMANCE - A volte buttarsi a capofitto in una nuova avventura aiuta a superare tutti i traumi del passato. Riuscirà, tuttavia, il futuro ad avere la meglio? Il coraggio basterà?

Ariane è una ventenne dolce ed equilibrata, tutt'altro che audace. Mark è il misterioso latin lover degli uffici. A parte essere colleghi i due sembrano avere poco in comune, eppure, con un po' di coraggio e avventatezza, nasce una storia d'amore travagliata e intensa. Le sorprese che la vita riserva loro sono molte e il passato ci mette lo zampino per rovinare tutto, ma se è vero che l'amore vince sempre, per questi due giovani le cose si sistemeranno presto, in un turbine di sana passione.

Adriana Mastroeni, vero nome della meglio nota Anita Blake, nasce a Catania 26 anni fa e fin da subito manifesta amore per la lettura e la scrittura imparando a scrivere da sola a cinque anni. Nonostante vada sempre in giro con un libro in mano, è solo intorno a quindici anni che la passione per la lettura esplose; da allora si è avvicinata al romance e al fantasy, senza disdegnare gialli e classici. Nel 2011 inizia anche a scrivere, postando su vari forum, dei racconti erotici brevi. Approda nel 2012 sul forum "Insaziabili letture" e ne diventa moderatrice distratta, per sua stessa definizione. Partecipa a diversi concorsi, fino a che, nel 2014, il suo racconto "Finché morte non vi separi" si piazza tra i vincitori del concorso Hellsgate Chronicles e verrà presto pubblicato. Stessa cosa avviene con un concorso per la pubblicazione di "365 Racconti d'estate", nel quale Delos Books sceglie il suo "Remembers" per un'appendice alla vera antologia.
