Albuquerque, the city of legends and one of North America's oldest cities, is steeped in history, and the paranormal. Throughout the city lurk the shades of yesteryear, surrounded by the memories of public hangings, duels, horrific murders and locations haunted by those who have passed over to the other side. This book tells of real hauntings and is the definitive book on the ghosts that haunt the Duke City. Vengeful lovers, murdered soldiers and mysterious specters await those who are brave enough to explore the secrets that lie within Albuquerque's darkest corners.
