If you have a maritime injury or wrongful death case, hiring the right lawyer is the most important decision you can make on the path to resolving it. Trying to find the right lawyer can be overwhelming, but this compact and clearly organized book is an invaluable resource. Texas attorney Brian Beckcom, a board-certified personal injury lawyer with over a billion dollars in settlements and jury verdicts, specializes in representing injured maritime employees. Mr. Beckcom shares his experiences from representing people throughout the United States to help you find the right lawyer for your case. In this book, he describes the process most people use to find a lawyer, explains the mistakes that people sometimes make-as well as how to avoid them-and shows you how to understand lawyer advertising to find the attorney with the right qualifications for your case. Mr. Beckcom even includes a list of questions you can use to interview prospective lawyers, guiding you through the process with professionalism and empathy.
